

DJ & PRODUCER · CUBA → TORINO

Cuban-born, Turin-based DJ & producer fusing Latin rhythm with electronic dance music.

BIOGRAPHY

Born in Cuba and based in Turin, Ogandi Ramos is a DJ and producer whose sets fuse Caribbean warmth with European dance music. Salsa, son and reggaeton flow into Afro-Latin house and tech house, driven by an instinct for reading a room and keeping the floor moving.

As a producer he has released a catalogue of singles and EPs on Spotify, Traxsource and Beatport — from early cuts such as Wonder Piano and Heaven's Name to the 2025 EPs O bailão and Vamo — issued through WB Productions / W.A.T.N. Records. As a performer he moves with ease between club nights, festivals and large-scale private events across Italy and beyond.
